OVERALL
MORNINGSTAR RATING™2

1.

The Fund is subject to risks, such as investment, equities and equity-related securities, liquidity, counterparty, currency risks, and the risks of investing in small and mid-capitalisation companies.
2.

The Fund's investment may be concentrated in the markets in ASEAN and the value of the Fund may be more volatile. Investing in emerging markets may involve increased risks, including liquidity, currency/currency control, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation, settlement, custody and volatility risks.
3.

The Manager integrates environmental, social and governance (ESG) information into the investment process, which may affect the Fund's investment performance and, as such, may perform differently compared to similar collective investment schemes.
4.

The Fund may have exposure to financial derivative instruments for investment or efficient portfolio management purposes which may involve counterparty/credit, liquidity, valuation, volatility and over-the-counter transaction risks. Exposure to financial derivative investments may lead to a high risk of significant loss by the Fund.
5.

Dividends may be paid out of unrealised capital gains at the discretion of the Managers which would effectively represent paying dividend out of capital. This amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or any capital gains attributable to that original investment. Payment of dividends may result in an immediate reduction of the net asset value of the Fund per unit.
6.

Investors may suffer substantial loss of their investments in the Fund.

WHY BARINGS ASEAN FRONTIERS FUND (THE “FUND”)?

1. OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE

The Fund has demonstrated resilience over various market cycles and delivered a strong track record over the longer term, accompanied by a 4-star Morningstar ranking.² As of February 2025, the Fund has outperformed both the benchmark and the median of Morningstar's ASEAN equity peer group and ranked 1st quartile over 5 years.^{3,4}

2. ASEAN IS WELL-POSITIONED FOR GLOBAL SUPPLY CHAIN REBALANCING

With a relatively cheaper labor cost and geographical proximity to major production and consumption centers, ASEAN economies are well-positioned to benefit from the global trend to rebalance supply chains—especially as global economies could face challenges associated with trade protectionism. In particular, multinational companies have substantially increased investments in ASEAN economies, which have attracted a staggering 28% of global net FDIs in 2023. This theme is expected to support growth in these markets and economies.

Major Investment Opportunities by Market⁶

Thailand	TourismEV and PC supply chains
Vietnam	Low-cost winnerSmartphone supply chains

3. ASEAN’S VALUATION IS ATTRACTIVE RELATIVE TO BROADER EMERGING MARKETS

Despite ASEAN's resilient economic performance and earnings growth during the recent interest-rate hike cycle, valuations are trading only around long-term average levels. Compared to a market with similar expectations, India, ASEAN is attractively valued. As the interest cutting cycle continues, ASEAN central banks may have more flexibility than those in other regions, which is likely a support for the equity markets.

FUND OBJECTIVES⁴

To seek long-term capital growth primarily through investment in a diversified portfolio of ASEAN companies which could include Singapore, Thailand, the Philippines, Malaysia, Indonesia and Vietnam.
