

Barings Latin America Fund

This is a marketing communication

OBJECTIVE AND INVESTMENT POLICY

Objective: To seek long-term (5 years or more) capital growth primarily through investment in Latin American equity securities.

Investment Policy: The investment policy will be to invest not less than 70% of the total assets of the Fund, at any one time, in securities issued by companies incorporated in Latin America, or which have a significant proportion of their assets or other interests in Latin America, or which carry on their principal business in or from Latin America. For this purpose, total assets exclude cash and ancillary liquidities. The Fund is also permitted to invest to a lesser extent in fixed income instruments and cash on deposit. The base currency of the Fund is USD.

PERFORMANCE CHART (%)

PAST PERFORMANCE DOES NOT PREDICT FUTURE RETURNS. An investment entails a risk of loss. If you are investing in a different currency to the base currency of the fund, your returns may increase or decrease as a result of currency fluctuations. Source: Morningstar/Barings: Performance figures are shown in USD on a NAV per unit basis, with gross income reinvested. All data is as of 30/04/2026, unless otherwise stated. Returns for periods greater than one year are annualized. The Benchmark is used for risk management and performance comparison purposes. The investment manager has complete discretion in making investments and is not constrained by the Benchmark.^ASI - since inception.

1. The benchmark is the MSCI Latin America 10/40 (Total Net Return) Index. From 1 May 2008 to 31 December 2019 the benchmark was the MSCI Latin America 10/40 (Total Gross Return) Index. Prior to the 1 May 2008 the benchmark was MSCI EMF Latin America (Total Gross Return) Index.

KEY RISK

- Your capital is at risk.
- During exceptional market conditions there may be insufficient buyers and sellers to allow the Fund to buy and sell investments, which could affect the Fund's ability to meet investors' redemption requests.
- Losses may occur if an organisation through which we buy an asset fails to meet its obligations. Custody of assets involves a risk of loss if a custodian becomes insolvent or breaches duties of care.
- Fund investments in derivatives are sensitive to changes in the value of the underlying asset on which they are based and their use may result in losses greater than the amount originally invested.
- Fund investments in overseas assets may lose value due to movements in foreign exchange rates. Fund investments in equities may be subject to significant fluctuations in value.
- The Fund can hold smaller company shares which can be more difficult to buy and sell and more volatile than those of larger companies. Fund investments in emerging markets may be subject to more risk due to economic, political or structural challenges.
- Region specific funds have a narrower focus than those which invest broadly across markets and are therefore more risky.
- Please refer to the Prospectus, Supplement and KIID for detailed information about the Fund, including objective, investment policy and risks on Barings.com

Be aware of currency risk. If you are buying this product in a different currency to your local currency you will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get will depend on the exchange rates between the two currencies. The OCF represents annual charges and other payments taken from the Fund, including the Management Fee. The OCF excludes the costs of buying and selling assets for the Fund. The OCF is based on ex-post expenses for the year ended 31 October 2025 and may vary from year to year.

The Morningstar Rating™ for funds, or “star rating”, is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product’s monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The Morningstar Rating does not include any adjustment for sales loads. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period actually has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods.

Barings Latin America A USD Inc was rated against the following numbers of Latin America Equity investments as of 30/04/2026 over the following time periods: 174 investments in the last three years, 167 investments in the last five years, and 127 investments in the last ten years. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

Morningstar Rating is for the Barings Latin America A USD Inc share class only; other classes may have different performance characteristics.

Although every effort is taken to ensure that the information contained in this document is accurate, Barings makes no representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding the accuracy, completeness or adequacy of the information.

Target and projected returns are derived from Barings' proprietary model, which contain a number of assumptions and judgements about (including future projections of one month term SOFR rates as projected by forward curves at time of preparation, prepayment of a certain percentage of the overall model portfolio, and market interest rate for the loans that comprise the model portfolio, among others) that Barings believes are reasonable under the circumstances. Generally, our assumptions include construction projects proceeding according to plan, no modeled losses, and no adverse macroeconomic events, among others. However, there can be no assurance that such assumptions will prove to be accurate, and the actual realized returns will depend on, among other factors, future operating results, interest rates, economic and market conditions, and the value of the underlying assets at the time of disposition, any related transaction costs and the timing and manner of disposition, all of which may differ from the assumptions on which targets and projections are based and therefore, the actual results achieved may vary significantly from the targets and projections, and the variations may be material. We would be happy to provide you with the risks related to hypothetical performance information at your request.
